Intro C.....

Verse 1

You are my constant refuge Protector of my weary soul
With every wall I come to In everything that is unknown
I will sing hallelujah You are good
I will sing hallelujah You are good

A broken melod-y I bring to the throne of God
And fall here at Your feet God, You are everything I need
More of You, less of me I lay it all at Your feet
A broken melod-y God, You are everything I need

Instrumental

Verse 2

The only one I cling to You are the one who meets my needs
No reason I will worry In everything You are with me
I will sing hallelujah You are good
